

First Baptist Church of Sutherland Springs

Benevolence Policy

Effective April 1, 2018

The form may be utilized for general assistance or benevolence requests. (not related to November 5, 2017 shooting incident).

Benevolence Guidelines:

1. Benevolence requests are for the necessities of life and may include, but are not limited to, utility bills, rent/mortgage, medicines, food and transportation. No benevolence will be administered to relieve the consequences of sin, such as bail bonds, drug/alcohol related issues, etc.
2. An applicant must complete the Assistance form and will normally be limited to receive assistance only twice in any given calendar year.
3. Except in extenuating circumstances, payment of expenses will be made directly the provider. Payment will typically be made by check or credit card. Evidence of the need such as copies of bills, cutoff/eviction notices, prescriptions for medications, etc. must be provided and attached to the application.
4. Applications will be reviewed and must be approved by the pastor and at least one deacon or church trustee.
5. IRS requirements related to church employees and benevolence will be adhered to.
6. Applications and information they contain will be held in strict confidence by all parties. Failure to maintain this confidentiality may result in the removal from the benevolence review committee and/or denial of future aid to the applicant.
