Opening Question(s)

In today's lesson, the apostle Paul explains the blessing that comes from God to all those who have been justified by faith. What happens when we forget about those blessings?

Precepts

ROMANS 5:1-4(NLT)

- 1 Therefore, since we have been made right in God's sight by faith, we have peace with God because of what Jesus Christ our Lord has done for us.
- 2 Because of our faith, Christ has brought us into this place of undeserved privilege where we now stand, and we confidently and joyfully look forward to sharing God's glory.
- 3 We can rejoice, too, when we run into problems and trials, for we know that they help us develop endurance.
- 4 And endurance develops strength of character, and character strengthens our confident hope of salvation.

Precepts

ROMANS 5:5-8(NLT)

5 And this hope will not lead to disappointment. For we know how dearly God loves us, because he has given us the Holy Spirit to fill our hearts with his love.

6 When we were utterly helpless, Christ came at just the right time and died for us sinners.

7 Now, most people would not be willing to die for an upright person, though someone might perhaps be willing to die for a person who is especially good.

8 But God showed his great love for us by sending Christ to die for us while we were still sinners.

ROMANS 5:9-11 (NLT)

9 And since we have been made right in God's sight by the blood of Christ, he will certainly save us from God's condemnation.

10 For since our friendship with God was restored by the death of his Son while we were still his enemies, we will certainly be saved through the life of his Son.

11 So now we can rejoice in our wonderful new relationship with God because our Lord Jesus Christ has made us friends of God.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- 1. Why does Paul emphasize humanity's weakness and our inability to change ourselves? Do you believe that all unsaved people are God's enemies? If so, why? If not, why not?
- 2. The world can suck up our hope, but it has always been this way. As followers of Christ, we will need to understand how to allow His hope into our lives. How can we connect our redemption to a daily hopeful outlook?

APPLICATION FOR ACTIVATION

- Share the eternal truths of today's lesson with at least two people this week.
- Explain how Christ's death not only reconciles us to God but also empowers us to live godly lives.
- Record the reactions of the people you share this Good News with and be prepared to share your experiences with the class next week.
