ARTICLE OF FAITH

XII. The Law and Gospel

We believe the Scriptures teach that the Law of God is the eternal and unchangeable rule of his moral government; that it is holy, just and good; and that the inability which the Scriptures ascribe to fallen men to fulfill its precepts, arise entirely from their love of sin; to deliver them from which, and to restore them through a Mediator to unfeigned obedience to the holy Law, is one great end of the Gospel, and of the Means of Grace connected with the establishment of the visible church.

SCRIPTURE

Proverbs 31:30-31

³⁰ Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting; but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised. ³¹ Honor her for all that her hands have done, and let her works bring her praise at the city gate.

Reverend Donna De Voe Baker

Rev. Donna De Voe Baker serves as the District Consultant and co-laborer of The Southwest Georgia Annual Conference Eastern District alongside her husband, Presiding Elder Joseph E. Baker, while leading Talent Management & Succession Planning for Synovus Bank where she works directly with senior and executive leadership to manage talent risk across the enterprise.

A life-long learner, she is a product of the Barnwell County School System, and a graduate from the University of South Carolina with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, double-majoring in Finance and Business Economics. Recognizing the importance of education in her ministry and her life in corporate America, she continued her studies at the M. Christopher White School of Divinity and the Gardner-Webb School of Business, earning her Master of Divinity (MDiv) and her Master of Business Administration (MBA) plus in Human Resources.

Presiding Elder & Rev Donna have two amazing sons, Joseph E. Baker, II, a graduating senior at Columbus High School who is headed to Albany State University in the Fall and Joshua S. Baker, an 8th grader at Blackmon Road Middle School who is headed to Columbus High School.

Rev Donna loves to preach and teach the Word of God. With lessons learned from 30 years of leading people to include a 21-year banking career, 12-year human resources career and over 22 years of preaching ministry, she seeks God's wisdom to take the complicated and simplify it for the up building of the Kingdom of God.

An entrepreneur at heart, she owns 3 small businesses:

De Voe Baker & Associates LLC.

A consultant and certified leadership & executive coach, she works with individual clients, nonprofits, and organizations as a thought partner around talent management, succession planning, board and leadership development.

PureFaith Ministries, Inc.

From a space of vulnerability & authenticity, she uses her ministry platform to host #RealTalks from Biblical lessons and personal testimonies of "faith, family, finances and healing" with a focus on the wholeness of a person.

Traveling Intentionally

As a travel business owner, she books travel and empowers aspiring entrepreneurs who want passive and residual income to invest in the $8 trillion-dollar travel industry.

Equally active in community, she currently serves as:

- Troy Phenix City Advisory Board, Vice Chair
- Girls Inc of Columbus GA, Board Member
- Columbus GA Personnel Review Board, Board Member
- Columbus (GA) Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta, Inc., Treasurer
- Southeastern Region of Jack & Jill of America, Inc., Regional Lead Teen Advisor
- Columbus (GA) Chapter of the National Council of Negro Women (NCNW), Charter & Life Member
- Leadership Columbus, Alumni (2019)

With a little faith in a big God, Rev Donna believes that all things are possible through Him who strengthens her. Her motto is "A mustard seed of faith yields a multitude of blessings!"
